Final Tournament Attendance: 3134½ tables!

Just 5½ down from last year's total, mostly lost on Monday and Wednesday night due to the Canucks' inability to get the job done when they had a 2-0 series lead.

A Few More Photos

OK, one more and one correction

Strat X winners in the very tough A/X Swiss on Sunday: Andrew Lee, Richmond BC; Kathy Bye, Burnaby BC; Angela Fenton, Vancouver BC; John Demeulemeester, Burnaby BC

Jessie Brunswig, Kirkland WA; Lynn Hays, Veradale WA actually won the Friday Open Pairs. When they told me they had won the Saturday Open Pairs (where they finished a respectable 11th overall) I figured they had seen 1 1 on the sheet and thought that was a win. If I had looked a day earlier...

Bridge by the Beach

WRAPUP Edition

Bridge by the Beach was the Daily Bulletin of the 2011 Penticton Regional, held at the Penticton Trade and Convention Centre, a short walk from the beach at Okanagan Lake. The tournament is Canada's largest and most enjoyable Regional, with events of all types for players of all levels and excellent hospitality. The word 'Penticton' is derived from a local native language, from a word meaning "place where waters pass by."

Bridge by the Beach editor:

Bruce McIntyre (Burnaby BC)

This is the final issue of Bridge by the Beach: the online Wrapup issue, which will contain Sunday results, complete masterpoint lists (if you won points, your name will be in it!), and photos and other items I receive today. I would like to thank everyone who made kind comments about the Bulletin and the online reports.

Each edition of Bridge by The Beach is posted online at about breakfast time, here:

www.matchpointer.com/db.htm

In addition to posting each issue of the Bulletin, I've been trying out a new program for the online results. For pair games you'll be able to click on your pair number and get a pop-up window of your summary! Today's results were posted a few hours after the final session ended. You'll also find links to a site which displays the photos of winners in colour, and allows you to download copies or order prints.

A link to the Daily Bulletin page will be posted at the District 19 website at www.d19.org.
